

QAIC HOLDS ONLINE CAPACITY BUILDING TRAINING FOR LASU STAFF

Sequel to the successful completion of module I training for staff of the University, the Quality Assurance Implementation Committee (QAIC), is set to hold the second module online capacity building training for Lagos State University Workforce [Staff].

The programme is a bumper package with modules 2 to 6 to be delivered concurrently over a period of three months. In case of tight or busy schedule, the programme has been simplified thus:

- I have little time to spare: take any or all of our Weekend Delight Modules that will run only on Fridays and Saturdays. These are modules 3 to 6.
- I will create time in spite of my busy schedule: Take module 2 and any or all of modules 3 to 6

There are only four prerequisites for admittance and success in the course:

1. Time commitment to taking the course [half-hearted participants with high chance of dropping out before the completion of a particular module are not welcome]. Please note, that the training is OPTIONAL. The system will automatically log out participants who default in submitting an assignment in due time;
2. Possession of a device [Preferably a laptop] for taking the course.
3. Personally-sourced internet connection for at least two hours in the day/night, devoted to taking the course;
4. Completing all assignments and tasks within the specified time limits.

Modules on offer now are:

NO	TITLE	MODE	DURATION	TENTATIVE DATES	FACILITATOR
2	Developing, uploading and Managing Online Courses	Full-Time	10 weeks	Aug. 7 – Oct 8	Peter A. Okebukola
3	How the Computer works	Part-time	One Weekend	Friday Aug 12-Sat-August 13	Peter A. Okebukola
4	Quick Guide to Developing Online Surveys and Analysis	Part-time	One Weekend	Friday Aug 19-Sat-August 20	Peter A. Okebukola

LASU AUTHORITY BANS EVENT OUTFIT, WILLY WEARS AND ASSOCIATES FROM THE UNIVERSITY

The Authority of Lagos State University, acting in the interest and the protection of the good image of the institution, has banned an event outfit, Willy-wars and Associates from sponsoring or organizing any event at the University.

The outfit in conjunction with Faculty of Arts Students' Association staged a Fashion show on Wednesday, July 20, 2016 at the Theatre Arts Auditorium, main Campus, Ojo, Lagos without obtaining approval from the University authority.

According to the Students' Affairs Division, in a letter to the Association and Willy Wears and Associates contravened the existing procedures for approval, simply because procedures were not met by the association before starting the event. It added that questions were raised on the letter of request and notification forwarded to the Acting Dean, Students' Affairs which the Association failed to respond to.

TEN [10] THINGS TO KNOW BEFORE GRADUATING

The Ready, Set, Work Project, an employability and entrepreneurship scheme for some final year students of Lagos State owned tertiary institutions on going at Lagos State University, Ojo, powered by Lagos State Government entered week seven [7] on Saturday, July 23, 2016.

Miss Banke Alawaye of Praekelt Consulting Ltd, a leading Pan African Consulting outfit was the Special Guest at the motivational talk.

Here are ten [10] tips she listed for undergraduates before they graduate from higher institutions:

1. KNOW YOURSELF-Knowing one's self is not limited to your name alone. You must discover who you truly are. Your strong points and weaknesses;
2. EXPERIENCE COUNTS-During holidays, break, even weekends, it is advisable to take up holiday or part time jobs, even, voluntary jobs, jobs. This will give you to required experience when you eventually go into labour;
3. KEEP LEARNING – Learning is not limited to lectures from your field of speciality of course at the University or Polytechnic. You are to learn soft skills;
4. MONEY MATTERS-Money is very key to everything you do. This will help to support one in achieving one's dream. Be it schooling or learning vocational skills;

5. COMMUNICATION- Good communication skills is very essential in today's competitive World. Learn to talk to people in the manner they are not offended. The ability to communicate clearly and to work well in team setting is critical to a sustained and successful employability.
Do not abbreviate when you write letters and memos. Learn to communicate in simple English. No ambiguity, it helps a great deal to work effectively in a team;
6. HANDLING FAILURE-"I have missed more than 9,000 shots in my career as a basket ball player. I have lost almost 300 games. 26 times I have been trusted to take the game's winning shot and missed. I have failed over and over again in my life. And that is why I succeeded".
MICHAEL JORDAN American Basket Ball Legend
Failure is not the end of the World, it means you have to work harder. No one is perfect, learn from that experience;
7. BE SOCIAL-WISE- 60% of employers now turn to social networks to research for job applicant, so, be weary of the posts, pictures and what you do on the social media. Your potential employers and business partners could be watching. Avoid anything extreme. You could post birthday, wedding, picnics pictures etc;
8. PEOPLE SKILLS - Interpersonal skills can be the difference between undergraduate Days and when you get employed. You need these skills;
9. PRESENTING YOURSELF-You never get a second chance to make a great first impression. People will treat you the way they see you. It is important how you present yourself. It is always good to put your best forward. Dress decently, look neat and comport yourself all the time.
10. ATTITUDE - Your attitude determines how successful you can be. Your Attitude determines your altitude.
