ABOUT THE BOOK

Nigerian Tax Offences and Penalties is a standard work and reference on the subject in Nigeria. It presents this difficult subject in a simplified mode. Law, Accountancy, Taxation, Economics, Banking and Finance students will find it an indispensable companion in their study for the various professional and university examinations. Legal, Tax and Accountancy practitioners and administrators have recourse to it in difficult cases for its authoritativeness. Adequately referenced, this work has incorporated comparative case law and statutes from the United Kingdom and various commonwealth jurisdictions as well as the United States thus enhancing its usefulness to both students and practitioners alike.
